

Sofya Mirvis

Director, Impact and Service Delivery

Sofya Mirvis has worked at the intersection of social services and education for over 13 years. In her current role as Director, Impact and Service Delivery, Ms. Mirvis is responsible for overseeing all aspects of service delivery by site staff across the varied Better Tomorrows communities nationwide and evaluating the impact achieved. She is passionate about exceptional service, staff growth and development, and delivering quality programs.

First starting at Better Tomorrows as an Associate Director, Sofya has grown her career through promotions to Senior Associate Director and then most recently Director of Programming and Training. Through her experience working within residential and community social service systems, Ms. Mirvis is keenly aware of the specific needs of Better Tomorrows' residents. She enjoys seeing the impact of Better Tomorrows programs and takes pride in knowing that individuals and communities are helped through this work.

Prior to Better Tomorrows, Sofya worked for Resources for Human Development in progressively responsible roles, eventually operating a community center for individuals in recovery with behavioral health goals. She has also worked in alternative and post-secondary school settings and managed afterschool and summer programs in the Philadelphia area.

Sofya holds a Masters of Fine Art from Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Tyler School of Art and Architecture of Temple University. She is also a Certified Psychiatric Rehabilitation Practitioner, trained in delivering trauma-informed case management, therapeutic and recreational activities to individuals of all ages and abilities.
